GDC Baramulla observes Preamble Pledge cum Special Lecture on Constitution Day of India

The National Service Scheme (NSS) in collaboration with Department of Political Science and NCC unit of Government Degree College, Baramulla organized a Samvidhan Diwas (Constitution Day), also known as National Law Day. The day is celebrated in India on November 26 every year to commemorate the adoption of the Constitution of India. Prof. (Dr.) Mushtaq Ahmad Lone, principal of the college was the chief guest on the occasion. The event witnessed a satisfactory attendance of 60 participants including faculty, NSS volunteers, NCC cadets and other students of the host college.

Mr. Riyaz Ahmad Wani, Head, Department of Political Science of the college was the lead speaker on the occasion. Introductory address was delivered by Prof. Mushtaq Ahmad Lone, who loudly read out the text of Preamble of the Constitution with fervour and enthusiasm along with all the participants.

His speech was followed by a lecture by Mr. Riyaz Ahmad on a theme titled "Constitution of India: Preamble and Philosophy". Mr. Wani very succinctly outlined the importance of the Constitution Assembly and the noble and rich features therein. Main contents of the Preamble of the constitution like Socialism, Democracy, Justice, Liberty, and Equality were given a proper explanation to the satisfaction of the audiences.

The lecture was held on November 26, 2021 in Smart Classroom of the college.

The event was a part of the celebrations of the "Azadi Ka Amrit Mahotsav (AKAM)" to mark 75 years of India's independence. The purpose of organizing this Preamble Pledge cum Special Lecture was to create awareness among the students about the Constitution of India.
